Albert S. Hoffman
Harry Jr. Millward 3/12 Pa

CATALOGUE

OF THE CONTENTS OF

MEADOW GARDEN

COMPILED BY

HARRIET GOULD JEFFERIES

Va. J

AUGUSTA CHAPTER

D. A. R.

NINETEEN HUNDRED and NINE

Albert Lyman
Harry L. Millward
112 Pa

CATALOGUE

OF ARTICLES PRESENTED TO

MEADOW GARDEN

AUGUSTA, GA.

¶ The home of Governor George Walton, one of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence

April17th, 1903 to
October30th, 1909

COMPILED AND ARRANGED BY
HARRIET GOULD JEFFERIES
CHAIRMAN OF MEADOW GARDEN

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2014

https://archive.org/details/catalogueofartic00jeff

AUGUSTA, GA.:
PRESS OF THE PHOENIX PRINTING CO
1909

Front Drawing Room

Pictures

No. 4—Potrait of Governor George Walton, who was born in Virginia in 1741. He came to Georgia in his youth and lived at "Meadow Garden" from 1791 to the day of his death in 1804. George Walton was a member of the Council of Safety; was twice Governor of Georgia; was six times a United States Representative in Congress; was once a Senator of the United States; was once Chief Justice of the State of Georgia; was several times a member of the Legislature, and was four times a Judge of the Supreme Court of Georgia. The work and gift of the artist, Mrs. Sarah Woolhopter Potter.

No. 1—Pictures of President George Washington, who visited Augusta, Ga., in 1791. A copy of Gilbert Stewart's portrait. Given by Mrs. S. J. Pinkerton, others from Mrs. James E. Harper, Mrs. Joseph B. Cumming and Mrs. Harriet Gould Jeffries.

No. 2—Picture of Martha Washington.

No. 3—Picture of Princess Augusta (for whom Augusta, Georgia, was named), the daughter of Frederick, Duke of Saxe Gotha. Presented by Mrs. Alexander J. Perry and Mrs. George Gray MacWhorter. The latter was the third Regent of the Augusta Chapter N. S. D. A. R.

No. 5—Portrait of Brigadier-General Thomas Glascock, a hero at the Siege of Savannah, Ga., who rescued Count Pulaski when mortally wounded. Presented by his great-great-grand-daughter, Mrs. Harriet Gould Jeffries, in 1903.

No. 6—Picture of General Elijah Clarke. He was born in Edgecomb County, North Carolina, in 1733, and died in 588673

Wilkes County, Georgia, January 15th, 1799. Given by Mrs. George Gray MacWhorter.

No. 7—Picture of Patrick Henry. Given by Mrs. James W. Moore, fourth Regent of Augusta Chapter N. S. D. A. R. It was during the Regency of this charming, beloved and intelligent member that "Meadow Garden" was acquired and restored.

No. 8—Picture of Archibald Bullock, who was the maternal great-great-grandfather of Theodore Roosevelt. Given by Mrs. S. B. Carpenter and Mr. Charles Edgeworth Jones.

No. 9—Picture of Governor John Adam Treutlen. He was a member of the first Provincial Congress of Georgia, which met in Savannah, July 4, 1775. In May 1777, the first Legislature met, under the new Constitution, and he was elected Governor of Georgia. He prevented the absorption of the State of Georgia by South Carolina. The distinguished Governor John Adam Treutlen was inhumanly murdered by the Tories. The picture was given by Miss Mary Montford Cleckley, his great-great-granddaughter.

No. 144—An engraving "The Rescue." The picture represents Sargeant Jasper and his friend Newton liberating certain American prisoners from a detachment of British soldiers near Savannah, Georgia. The gift of Mrs. Charles A. Rowland and Miss Annie W. Rowland.

No. 10—Portrait of Mrs. Harriet Gould Jefferies, who conceived the plan of acquiring and restoring historic "Meadow Garden." She is a Charter Member and Registrar of the Augusta Chapter N. S. D. A. R., and Honorary State Regent of Georgia. Given by Mrs. Harriet Gould Jeffries. Presented for her by Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, and unveiled by little Hattie Gould Jeffries.

No. 11—A colored print of Mount Vernon. Given by Miss Lula Walton.

No. 12—A rare old colored print—Washington's Reception at Trenton, New Jersey, April, 1789. The gift of Mrs. Katherine Houston Fisher.

Southern Pamphlets
Rare Book Collection
UNC-Chapel Hill

No. 13—Engraving of Washington and his family. Presented by Mrs. Harriet Gould Jeffries.

No. 14—Three pictures of I. Greenwood, Surgeon Dentist to His Excellency General Washington. Given by Dr. B. Hammet Teague, of Aiken, South Carolina.

No. 15—A papier mache plaque of "Lafayette Gilbert." Ne'en 1757, Mort en 1834. General Lafayette visited Augusta, Georgia, in 1825. A gift from Mr. A. A. Thomas, of the firm of Thomas & Barton.

No. 16—Pictures of the three founders of the the Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution—Miss Eugenia Washington, on the left; Mrs. Ellen Harden Walworth, in the centre, and Miss Mary Desha, on the right.

No. 17—Pictures of Mrs. Carolina Scott Harrison, First President General of the N. S. D. A. R., on the left; Mrs. Mary Lockwood, in centre; Mrs. Letitia Green Stevenson, President General of the N. S. D. A. R. and wife of ex-President Adlai Stevenson, on the right.

No. 18—Picture of Mrs. Mary Margarette Manning, Fourth President General N. S. D. A. R.

No. 19—Picture of Mrs. Charles Warren Fairbanks, Fifth President General N. S. D. A. R.

No. 20—Picture of Mrs. Donald McLane (nee Emily Nelson Ritchie), Sixth President General N. S. D. A. R.

No. 21—Picture of officers at National Congress D. A. R., at Washington, D. C. Gift of Mrs. H. G. Jeffries.

No. 22—Picture of ladies and Mr. James Gould Jeffries in Revolutionary costume at the opening of Meadow Garden, November 21, 1901.

No. 23—Another view of the same. Given by Mrs. H. G. Jeffries.

No. 24—Engraving of Hugh McCall, the historian. From Mr. A. B. Caldwell, publisher, Atlanta, Georgia.

No. 25—Continental Memorial Hall, National Society Daughters of the American Revolution.

No. 26—Picture taken from portrait of John Caldwell Calhoun; by Rembrandt Peale. Given by one of his descendants—Mrs. Thomas Frost, of Charleston, South Carolina.

No. 27—Picture with autograph of President William Howard Taft, Washington, D. C.

No. 28—A copy of the portrait of Hon. Richard Henry Wilde, the statesman and poet, who wrote :"My Life Is Like the Summer Rose." The gift of Miss Emily Loring Wilde, of Los Angeles, California.

No. 29—A spinnet which belonged to the family of Richard Henry Wilde. Presented by Mrs. H. G. Jeffries.

No. 30—A bill of Continental currency—eighty dollars—1779.

No. 31—A bill of Continental currency—five dollar bank note, dated May, 1779, North Carolina. From Mrs. Austin M. Harland, of Tennessee.

No. 32—A certificate of Continental currency—four dollars—Georgia 1776. Given by Captain B. H. Smith, Augusta, Ga.

No. 33—A bill of Continental currency—three dollars—Baltimore, February 26, 1777. Given by Mrs. Julia Flournoy Carter Moore, of Augusta, Georgia.

A block of wood from a magnolia tree at Mount Vernon, which had been planted by General George Washington. From Mrs. H. G. Jeffries, Augusta, Georgia.

Emery with a corn top, from Mount Vernon. The gift of Mrs. Charles A. Rowland, Augusta Georgia.

No. 34—Dressing case belonged to Mrs. Appling, wife of Colonel Appling. It is considerably over a hundred years old. Given by Mrs. Martha Massengale, Augusta, Georgia.

No. 35—Miniature Liberty Bell made from the surplus historic metal saved in casting the Columbian Liberty Bell. Bought by the Augusta, Georgia, Chapter.

No. 36—Picture of Button Gwinnett, signer from Georgia of the Declaration of Independence. A gift from Mr. Charles Edgeworth Jones, Augusta, Georgia.

No. 37—Copper-plate of "Meadow Garden," before it was restored. From Dr. B. H. Teague.

No. 38—An iron key which had belonged to the dungeon in the old Fort at Ninety Six, South Carolina. From Mrs. William A. Garrett, Augusta, Georgia.

No. 39—Mount Vernon, painted on a stone left from the General Washington monument, Washington, D. C. From Dr. B. H. Teague.

No. 40—A letter from George Walton to Governor Milledge, dated "Meadow Garden, November 23, 1803."

No. 41—Another letter from Governor George Walton. From Mrs. S. B. Carpenter.

No. 42—A silk "Star Spangled Banner." From Mrs. H. G. Jeffries.

No. 43—A piece of wood from the George Whitefield oak.

No. 44—A piece of wood from the John Wesley oak.
Given by Mrs. Sarah Berrien Casy Morgan, Charter member of the N. S. D. A. R., Founder and Regent of the Augusta Chapter, 1891; State Regent from 1893 until 1898; Vice-President General from 1900 until 1904.

No. 45—Set of carved rosewood furniture—two sofas and five chairs. Presented by Mrs. H. G. Jeffries.

No. 46—Large mahogany arm chair. The gift of Mrs. Eugene Baum.

No. 47—Mahogany candle stand. It was given to Mrs. M. C. Hall in 1837 by Mrs. Miex, whose ancestors brought it over in the Mayflower. Given by Miss Mary A. Hall.

No. 48—Revolutionary mortar. Many prescriptions were pounded in it for the followers of Marion and Maham during the war. Sent by the Lachlan McIntosh Chapter D. A. R., Savannah, Georgia.

No. 49—Round mahogany centre table. Given by M. L. Watson, dealer in antique furniture, Augusta, Georgia.

No. 50—Candelabra for one candle. The gift of Mrs. Jeanne Earle dos Passos.

No. 51—Square mahogany table. Given by Mrs. Sophie Flournoy Carter Johnson.

No. 52—A pair of brass candlesticks considerably over a hundred years old—belonged to Robert Lewis, of Albermale County, Virginia, the great-great-grandfather of Mrs. Estelle Lewis Graham and Miss Lucy Lewis, who presented them.

No. 53—A medal, a duplicate of the superb gold medal which was given to General Daniel Morgan by the United States Congress for valor at the battle of Cowpens. Accompanying the medal was a photograph made from a miniature of General Morgan. Given by Mrs. Henry Percy Burum.

No. 54—A gavel made from the wood of an oak tree which grew near the tomb of President George Washington at Mount Vernon. The gavel was given as a memorial to Mrs. Philoiclea Eve, who was Georgia's first Vice-Regent in the Ladies' Mount Vernon Association, by her niece, Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, and presented by Mrs. Pickens (nee Lucy Holcomb, of Texas), wife of Francis W. Pickens, of Edgefield, S. C., who was Governor of South Carolina, was a Colonel in the War of 1812 and United States Minister to Russia.

No. 55—A paper weight of a piece of stone with Mount Vernon painted on it, left from material used in buliding the General Washington monument, Washington, D. C.—cornerstone laid, July 4, 1848; capstone set, December 6, 1885; height, 555 feet. Given to Dr. B. H. Teague, of Aiken, S. C., in 1885, by Mrs. Gov. F. W. Pickens. The former sent it to Meadow Garden.

A miniature spinning wheel made from wood which grew near Plymouth Rock, Massachusetts. From Miss Meta Telfair McLaws, Washington, D. C.

A set of brass andirons from George Walton Chapter D. A. R., Columbus, Ga.

Large rug, given by Mr. J. B. White.

Rear Drawing Room

No. 56—Painting of Meadow Garden, the work of and given by Mrs. Carlton Hillyer.

No. 57—An oil painting of the birthplace of Major-General Nathaniel Greene, by Addison T. Richards, who was born at Hooknorton, England (near Cambridge). The greater portion of his young manhood was spent in Georgia, during which time he named the beautiful falls at Tallulah. He died June, 1900. Presented by Miss Louise DuBose, of Athens, Georgia.

No. 50—Engraving of Elizabeth, Grace and Rachel Martin, of South Carolina. Given by Miss Annie Robertson Martin, of Augusta, Georgia.

No. 59—Antique et'agere. The gifts of Mrs. Charles H. Phinizy, Second Regent of the Augusta Chapter D .A. R.

No. 60—A Melodeon, presented by Mrs. Mary Louise Robertson and Miss Catherine Elizabeth Walton.

A picture of Governor John Adam Treutlen. From Mrs. Charles H. Dixon, of Savannah, Georgia.

No. 144—Black mohair and mahogany rocking chair. Given by Misses Josephine and Lula Walton. Large rug, given by Thomas & Barton.

Hall

No. 60—Derby Day—A painting bought by Judge Edmund Bacon, of Edgefield, S. C., in London in the Fall of 1812. Judge Bacon, "Ned Brace" of "The Georgia Scenes," was born in Augusta in 1776. The gift of Mr. James T. Bacon, Edgefield, South Carolina.

No. 62—An old cannon which was used by the American forces in the battle of Ninety Six, South Carolina, and in the defense of Augusta, Georgia, during the Revolutionary War, commanded by Colonel LeRoy Hammond. It was owned by Mrs. Thomas McKey, of Aiken, South Carolina, his grand daughter.

No. 63—A British officer's fusse, used in the Revolutionary War. From Dr. B. H. Teague.

No. 64—Antique Hatrack. From Mrs. Charles H. Phinizy. Rug, from Fleming & Bowles.

Library

No. 65—A copy of the Delaration of Independence. Given by Miss Josephine Walton.

No. 66—Engraving of the Singers of the Delaration of Independence. The gift of Mrs. A. G. Lamb.

No. 67—Engraving of Alexander Hamilton. From Mrs. James W. Moore.

No. 68—Views of Washington's Headquarters at Newberg, New York.

No. 69—View of Washington's Headquarters and Tower of Liberty at Newberg, New York.

No. 70—Bunker Hill Monument, Old North Church and Old South Meeting House at Boston, Massachusetts. From Mrs. Knapp, of New York.

No. 71—Copy of a certificate of membership of the Society of the Cincinnati. From Mr. Thomas Savage Clay, formerly from Savannah, Georgia, now of New York.

No. 72—Picture of General George Washington, wearing his Cincinnati Insignia. He was the first President-General of the Society, which was organized in 1783. From Mr. Thomas Savage Clay.

No. 73—Painting of monument which marks the side of Wakefield. Work and gift of Mrs. S. W. Potter.

No. 74—Painting of Wakefield, the birth place of President George Washington. Work and gift of Mrs. S. W. Potter.

No. 75—A framed may of Bridge Creek, Westmoreland County, Virginia, the birth place of President George Washington. Presented by Mrs. H. G. Jeffries.

No. 76—Framed collection of his torical relics. From Dr. B. H. Teague, of Aiken, South Carolina.

No. 77—A framed copy of The Ulster County, New York, Gazette, published January, 1800, containing an account of President George Washington's funeral. Given by Miss Mary A. Hall, of Augusta, Georgia.

No. 78—Picture of the First Steam Railroad Passenger Train in America. Given by Miss Mary Jane Moore, of Augusta, Georgia.

No. 79—A copy of the Boston Gazette of 1773. From Miss Mary A. Hall, of Augusta, Georgia.

No. 80—The Charter of the Augusta Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution.

No. 81—A picture of Independence Hall, where the Declaration of Independence was signed; also the fac similes of the signatures. The gift of Mr. James Barrett.

No. 82—A framed copy of The Augusta Herald, Sunday, March 3, 1901, containing "Historic Augusta."

No. 83—Old mahogany bookcase. From Mrs. Joseph Bryan Cumming, Fifth Regent of the Augusta Chapter D. A. R.

No. 84—Mahogany combination desk and drawers. From Colonel D. B. Dyer, of Augusta, Georgia.

No. 85—Mahogany centre table for library. Given by Pulaski Chapter D. A. R., Griffin, Georgia.

No. 86—Mahogany arm chair. From the Piedmont Continental Chapter D. A. R., Atlanta, Georgia.

No. 87—Large mahogany and leather rocking chair in which President George Washington sat when he visited Augusta, Georgia, in 1791. From Mr. Edward W. Platt, of Augusta, Georgia.

No. 88—Old flax wheel. From Mrs. William W. Gordon, of Savannah, Georgia.

No. 89—Old spinning wheel. From Mrs. Margaret Barrett Dugas.

No. 90—Picture of old fire bell tower formerly at Augusta, Georgia. From Mr. M. L. Watson, of Augusta, Georgia.

No. 91—Bound volume of The Augusta Herald, 1813, 1814 and 1815. From Miss Mary A. Hall, Augusta, Georgia.

No. 92—The Monitor. Published by Mrs. Sarah Porter Hillhouse. The first newspaper published in Georgia. Given by Mrs. Sarah Porter Shepherd Flewellen, of Columbus, Georgia.

No. 93—The Augusta Chronicle "Fair Edition," October 27, 1906. The gift of Mrs. H. G. Jeffries.

No. 94—Twenty-five copies of The Laurelled Chef D'Ouvre D'Art, comprising the prizes of the latest Paris Salons, and other great exhibitions; also from The Royal Academy of London and other public galleries of Europe and America. Gibbe & Co., publishers, Philadelphia, Pa. From Mrs. Katherine Houston Fisher.

A copy of Shakespeare. From Mrs. Katherine Houston Fisher.

No. 95—Old sand sprinkler—before blotters were invented. From Dr. B. H. Teague, of Aiken, South Carolina.

No. 96—Crystal paper weight. Given by Mrs. H. G. Jeffries. Large rug, loaned by Mrs. H. G. Jeffries. Two rag rugs made by Mrs. Harriet G. Gould and loaned by Mrs. H. G. Jeffries.

Dining Room

No. 97—Old mahogany sideboard, purchased by Mrs. H. G. Jeffries and Mrs. K. H. Fisher.

No. 98—Mahogany extension dining table purchased by Mrs. H. G. Jeffries and Mrs. K. H. Fisher.

No. 99—Mahogany secretary. Presented by Mrs. Harriet Glascock Gould, Vice-Regent of the Augusta Chapter from 1893 until 1907.

No. 100—An antique clock. From the Sergeant Newton Chapter D. A. R., Covington, Georgia.

No. 101—A chest for silver knives, forks and spoons. From Mrs. W. P. Whitmore (nee Mary Noble Berrien, a member of the Xavier Chapter D. A. R., Rome, Georgia.

A fan-shaped saucer with a painting on it of the "Old Royall House" in 1725, at Medford, Massachusetts. From Miss Josephine Walton, of New York.

No. 102—A fly brush made out of peacock feathers. From the Kettle Creek Chapter D. A. R., of Washington, Ga.

No. 103—A white and gold china teapot. Given by Miss Mary Shannon, of Shelbyville, Ky. It had been in her family more than a hundred years.

No. 104—Five mahogany chairs, seats covered with black mohair. Given by the Savannah Chapter D. A. R., of Savannah, Georgia.

No. 145—Rag rug, woven in the mountains of Georgia. Presented by Mrs. W. N. Benton.

Bed Room Over Front Drawing Room

No. 105—A handsome antique mahogany bed, bureau and washstand. Given by Mrs. Francis Edgeworth Eve, of Augusta, Georgia.

No. 106—White and gold china set for washstand. From Mr. O. C. Lee, of Augusta, Georgia.

Bed Room Over Library

No. 107—Old mahogany bedstead. From Mrs. William A. Garrett, of Augusta, Georgia.

No. 108—A mahogany chair in which William Makepeace Thackeray sat when he visited Augusta in ——, and delivered his lecture on "The Four Georges." He was the guest of Dr. Ignatius P. Garvin. From Mrs. W. A. Garrett.

No. 109—Blue china washstand set. From Mr. T. C. Bligh.

Bed Room Over Dining Room

No. 101—A mahogany bureau. From Mrs. W. A. Garrett.

No. 111—A bureau that belonged to Bishop Haratio Potter, of New York, and was given by his daughter, Miss Anna Potter, to Miss Mary Rebecca Boggs, who gave it to "Meadow Garden."

Quilt, made by Mrs. Mary Ann Mosely, of Abbeville, South Carolina, in 1824, and was finished and quilted by Mrs. Rebecca Longstreet Camfield, of Augusta, Georgia, the sister of Judge Longstreet, who wrote "Georgia Scenes." From Miss Mary Rebecca Boggs.

A quilt, made in 1809, by Dorothy Walton, wife of the Signer of the Declaration of Independence. From Mrs. C. E. Staples, of Augusta, Georgia.

An old counterpane. From Mrs. Lewis Graves Parks, of Augusta, Georgia.

An engraving, "Our Saviour Healing the Sick in the Temple," by Aaron Kink. From Mrs. Jeanne Earle dos Passos, of Augusta, Georgia.

Antique brass eagle knocker on front door. From Mrs. James Farrow McGowan.

Old brass knocker on back door. From Mr. William C. Jones. Had been on his house, on lower Broad St., for a hundred years—until it was torn down.

Old brass window cornices, and door knobs. Given by Mrs. Ella Myers Franklin and Miss Disiree L. Franklin.

Handsome bunting flag, 20 feet long and 12 feet wide. Given by Mrs. Clifford Gregory, of Albany, New York; Mrs. Zeigler, of Brooklyn, New York, and other members of the Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the Bon Air Hotel.

A gavel, made out of elm and wild cherry wood from Mount Vernon, Fairfax County, Virginia. Given by Mr. Franklin A. Whelan.

Articles Loaned by Mrs. H. G. Jeffries

Augusta, Georgia

Front Drawing Room

No. 112—Eleven mahogany chairs, upholstered seats in yellow brocade.
No. 113—
No. 114—
No. 115—
No. 116—
No. 117—
No. 118—
No. 119—
No. 120—
No. 121—
No. 122—
No. 123—A mahogany piano stool, upholstered in yellow brocade.

No. 124—Two mahogany and black mohair foot stools.

No. 125—One set of six carved mahogany and black mohair chairs.

No. 126—Two candelabra.

No...127—Vases.

No. 128—Brass fender, fire place set and all other ornaments.

Rear Drawing Room

No. 128—Gold framed mirror over mantel. Brass andirons, fire place set, vases, candlesticks and all other ornaments, except two white and blue vases not numbered.

Hall

No. 129—Two mahogany chairs, black mohair seats.

No. 130—An old spinning wheel.

Library

No. 131—Three crystal and bronze candelabra candlesticks, vases and other ornaments not numbered.

No. 132—An old flax wheel. Brass trimmed wire fender and fire place set.

No. 133—Large mahogany rocking chair, upholstered in green and gold brocade.

No. 134—Small mahogany rocking chair, upholstered in green and gold brocade.

No. 135—Mahogany work table with two drawers.

No. 136—Mahogany foot-stool, upholstered in green and gold brocade.

Dining Room

No. 137—Eight carved mahogany chairs, black mohair seats. Two dozen blue-plates, representing Colonial and Revolutionary homes and scenes, placed around frieze. Several dozen blue and white plates and cups and saucers. Three blue and white bowls. Fourteen pictures. One dozen white glass tumblers. One decanter. One blue and white round dish. One blue and white plaque of Mount Vernon, vases ,candlesticks, and all other ornaments. One wire brass-trimmed fender, brass andirons and fire-place set. A white cup and saucer from which Mrs. Elizabeth Phoebe Key Howard enjoyed a draught of tea at the Martha Washington tea party at Baltimore, Md., in 1875, sent to Mrs. Jeffries by General James Howard, the son of the former and the grandson of General John Eager Howard, of Revolutionary fame, and the immortal Frances Scott Key, who wrote the "Star Spangled Banner."

Bed Room Over Front Drawing Room

No. 138—One china set for bureau, five pieces—blue, white and gold.

Bed Room Over Back Drawing Room

No. 139—Mahogany set of four pieces—bedstead, bureau, glass on stand and washstand.

Bed Room Over Library

1No. 140—A large mahogany bureau.

No. 141—Mahogany washstand, two vases, scent bottles, ornaments.

Bed Room Over Dining Room

No. 142—A small mahogany bedstead.

No. 143—Mahogany washstand. Two bed spreads.

Pictures at Meadow Garden

(Framed and Unframed)

Two photographs of the old historic St. John's Epispocal Church in Richmond, Va. From Miss Mary A. Hall, Augusta, Georgia.

Photographs of General and Martha Washington. From the Superintendent of Washington's Headquarters, at Newberg.

Engraving of Sergeant William Jasper, Major John Habersham and Major-General Samuel Elbert. From Mrs. S. B. Carpenter and Mr. Charles Edgeworth Jones, of Augusta, Ga.

Six old engravings comprising the following subjects:

L'Escorte D'Equipage; Jesus Christ au Tombeau; Leonard da Vinci; La Forza dell Educazione; Avengle Chansouier; and The Escape of the Mouse. From Miss Annie Camak, of Athens, Georgia.

Picture of Vari Cortlandt Manor. From Mrs. Emily L. Bostwick Fay, of Peeksville, New York.

A calendar of historic flags of the United States of America: Our Rattlesnake flag, 1775; our Liberty flag, September, 1775; our first Union flag, January 2, 1776; our Pine Tree flag of the Navy, 1776; our first National flag, June 14, 1777; The Flag of Our Own Time, 1903.

A picture of the oldest house in New England, at Guilford, Conn. Built for the Rev. Henry Whitefield in 1640.

A picture of historic St. Paul's, New York.

A set of nine photo-gravines taken from Trumbull's great historic paintings of the Revolutionary War:

Two pictures of President George Washington; Battle of Bunker Hill; Battle of Princeton; Surrender of Burgoyne; Surrender of Cornwallis; Signers of the Declaration of Independence, and Washington Resigning His Commission. From Major Sidney Herbert Lancy, of Maitland, Florida.

Four pictures of the imposing ceremonies at the re-interment of General Nathaniel Greene, at Savannah, Ga., November 14th, 1902. From Major S. H. Lancy.

Eleven etchings and engraving of the following subjects: "The Holy Marriage and the Nativity," by Albrecht Durer, four hundred years old and very valuable; "Count Pulaski," with whom Brigadier-General Thomas Glascock was intimately associated during the Revolutionary War; "Monticello Home of Thomas Jefferson" and the "University of Virginia;" from Mrs. Harriet Gould Jeffries. "Tomo Chachi Mico, or King of the Yamacraws," "Major-General The Baron DeKalb," "General Gadsden," "Samuel Ward," Lieutenant-Colonel First Rhode Island Regiment; "John Russell Bartlett," "Lieut.-Col. Banastre Tarleton," "Theodori De Bry Leodieu." This valuable collection of engravings was presented by Mr. James Barrett, of Augusta, Ga.

A steel engraving of General Oglethorpe, from an original engraving in the possession of George Wymberly Jones, of Savannah, Georgia; given by Mr. A. B. Caldwell, publisher, Atlanta, Georgia.

Picture of Phillipse Manor, The City Hall, Yonkers, N. Y. From Mrs. Emily L. Bostwick Fay.

Picture from the portrait of Colonel Samuel Hammond, born in Virginia, September 21, 1757; died in South Carolina, September 11, 1842. From his grandson, Mr. Hugh Washington, of Macon, Georgia.

An engraving of the insignia of the Society of the Cincinnati in the State of Georgia. From Mr. Thomas Savage Clay, formerly of Savannah, Ga., now of New York. Also a picture of same from Mr. William Berrien Burroughs, of Brunswick, Georgia.

Books and Papers Given to Meadow Garden

The American Museum or Repository of ancient and modern fugitive pieces, etc., prose and poetical, from January 1787 to 1792. These rare, old books are 121 years old. Nine volumes. Carey, Stewart & Co., publishers, Philadelphia, July 20, 1790.

Encyclopaedia Americano. A popular distionary of arts, science, literature, history, politics and biography. 12 volumes.

Memoir, Correspondence, and Miscellanies. From the papers of Thomas Jefferson. 4 volumes.

The Life of Patrick Henry. By William Wirt, of Richmond, Virginia, 1838.

The History of the Progress and Termination of the Roman Republic. By Adam Ferguson, LL.D.

A copy of The Ulster County Gazette, published January, 18. A copy of the Will of Mary Washington. From Mrs. Virginia Hardwick Jackson (Mrs. John K. Jackson) the honored and oldest member of the Augusta Chapter N. S. D. A. R.

Lineage Books from Volume I to Volume XXXVIII. From the National Society D. A. R., Washington, D. C.

Stories of Georgia. By Harris. From William F. Law, of Augusta, Georgia.

History of Georgia. From the author, Lawton B. Evans, of Augusta, Georgia.

"Dixie," By Julian Ralph. From Mr. Armistead F. Pendleton, of Augusta, Georgia.

History of Georgia. 2 volumes. By Colonel Charles C. Jones. From Mrs. S. B. Carpenter and Mr. Charles Edgeworth Jones, of Augusta, Georgia.

A copy of Shakespeare, and twenty-five copies of The Laurelled Chef D'Oeuvre D'Art. From Mrs. Katherine Houston Fisher, of Augusta, Georgia.

Bound volume of The Augusta Herald, July 1, 1813-1815. From Miss Mary A. Hall, of Augusta, Georgia.

Bound copies of The Monitor, published by Mrs. Sarah Porter Hillhouse; the first newspaper published in Georgia. From Mrs. Sarah Porter Shepherd Flewellen, of Columbus, Ga.

Year Book of the Department of Agriculture, 1899 and 1900.

United States Commission of Fish and Fisheries, 1899.

Memorial Address on the Life and Character of Charles Frederick Crisp, 1899.

The Louisiana Purchase.

Proceedings in Congress, and the acceptance of the Statues of Thomas H. Benton and Francis P. Blan. Presented by the State of Missouri.

Dedication of the Chicamaugua and Chattanooga National Military Park.

Message of the President of the United States on the Relations of the United States to Spain, 1898.

Statistical Abstract of the United States, 1899 and 1900.

Map of Alaska.

Annual Reports of the Smithsonian Institution from 1895 to 1900. Large Atlas of the United States. Atlas de Filipinos.

Report of the Cruise of the United States Revenue Cutter Bear, and the Overland Expedition, November 27, 1897, to September 13, 1898.

Official Congressional Directory, Washington, D. C., 1902.

Year Book of the Department of Agriculture, 1901.

Annual Report of the Smithsonian Institute, 1901.

Report of the Daughters of the American Revolution, 1890-1897.

Abstract of the Twelfth Census of the United States. Given by Hon. William H. Fleming, of Augusta, Georgia, member of Congress.

National Portrait Gallery of Eminent Americans.

Life of Aaron Burr. By J. Parton.

Life and Campaigns of Lieutenant-General Thomas J. (Stonewall) Jackson. By R. L. Dabney, D.D.

Alexander H. Stevens in Public and Private, with letters and speeches. By Henry Cleveland.

The War Between the States. By Alexander H. Stephens. From Mrs. Harriet Rebecca Tutt.

History of Columbus, Ga., 1827-1865.

Three Revolutionary Soldiers—David Forman, 1745-1797; Jonathan Forman, 1755-1809; Thomas Marsh Forman, 1758-1845. From Mrs. Elisha P. Dismukes, of Columbus, Georgia.

The Queens of American Society. By Mrs. Ellet.

Year Book, 1904-1905. From the George Walton Chapter N. S. D. A. R., of Culumbus, Georgia.

A copy of President George Washington's Farewell Address, which was printed in 1796 and reprinted in 1896. From Mrs. Annie Twiggs Taylor.

Historical Collections of the Joseph Habersham Chapter N. S. D. A. R. Volume II, 1902. From Mrs. William Lawson Peel, of Atlanta, Georgia.

The Story of Georgia and the Georgia People, 1732 to 1860. From the author, George Gillman Smith, D.D., of Macon Ga.

Historical Collections of the Joseph Habersham Chapter N. S. D. A. R., of Atlanta, Ga. The beautiful leather cover is the work of Mrs. John M. Graham and it was bound by Mrs. Woodward, both of Atlanta, Georgia.

Georgia Land and People. By Frances Letcher Mitchell. From Mrs. Nellie Stovall Phinizy, of Athens, Ga.

Napoleon—A Sketch of His Life, Character, Struggles and Achievements, 1902. From the distinguished author, statesman and lecturer, Thomas E. Watson, of Thomson, Georgia.

The Smithsonian Institution—Origin and History. Volume I, Volume II., 1835-1887, and 1887-1899.

Annual Report of the Smithsonian Institution, 1896. United States National Museum.

Annual Report of the Smithsonian Institution, 1902.

Year Book of the Department of Agriculture, 1902. Given by Hon. Thomas W. Hardwick, member of Congress.

Books that belonged to Madame Octavia Walton Le Vert.

Tales of My Landlord, collected and arranged by Zedediah Cleishbotham, schoolmaster and parish clerk of Gaudercleugh; published in 1818.

English Synonymes. By George Crabb, of Magdalen Hall, Oxford. Published in 1819.

Hand Book of Modern London. Published by John Murray in London in 1853.

Murray's Hand Book for Travelers in Switzerland.

Lavoy and Piedmont. John Murray, London, 1852.

Murray's Hand Book for Travelers in Southern Tuscany and Papal States. John Murray, London, 1853.

A Continental Bill, for eighty dollars, the 8th day of February, 1779.

The autograph of President Jefferson Davis of the U. S. C.

A book containing song poems, composed by and in the handwriting of Madame Octavia Walton Le Vert, April 20, 1843.

A book containing Madame Le Vert's journal, beginning June 11, 1853, ending July 21, 1853. She wrote charmingly of London, other parts of England, Paris and Versailles.

A book containing Madame Le Vert's journal, beginning at Havana, Island of Cuba, January 28, 1855, ending in Spain on the 10th of March, 1855. This valuable collection, and these priceless manuscripts were given to Mrs. H. G. Jeffries for the Meadow Garden Library by Mr. Lewis J. Schaul, of Augusta, Georgia.

The Knickerbocker Gallery. A testimonial to the editor of The Knickerbocker from its contributions. With forty-eight portraits on steel from original pictures engraved expressly for this work. Mr. Louis Gaylor Clark, New York, November 7, 1854.

The Life and Campaigns of General Lee. By his nephew, Edward Lee Childe. Translated from the French, with the consent and approval of the author, by George Litting, M.A., LL.D., London, 1875. From Miss Mary Rebecca Boggs, of Augusta, Georgia.

Memorial Address of the Life and Character of William McKinley, President of the United States, February 27, 1900. By Hon. John Hay. From U. S. Senator A. S. Clay, of Marietta, Georgia.

Ten bound copies of the National Intelligener, Washington, D. C., dates from 1833 to 1843; and eighteen unbound packages of the same newspaper. From Miss Lula B. Walton, of Augusta, Georgia.

Ulster County Gazette. Published by Samuel Freer & Son, Saturday, January 4, 1800. This valuable old newspaper contains letters of condolence on the death of General George Washington from the Senate of the United States and the House of Representatives, Thursday, December 19, 1799, and President John Adams' replies. Given by Mrs. Sherwood.

Story of Wilkes County. By Eliza A. Bowen. From Kettle Creek Chapter D. A. R., Washington, Georgia.

Revolutionary Calendar. Minutesmen Calendar. Tales of Tybee. By J. H. Estill.

Copy of the Navy League Journal, May, 1906, containing an account of the Captain John Paul Jones ceremonies, and the oration delivered at Annapolis, Maryland, April 24, 1906. By General Horace Porter, LL.D. From Major Sidney Herbert Lancey, of Maitland, Florida.

Two interesting old letters—one was written by Tho Flournoy, Brig-Genl. U. S. Army, to Captain Jones, Savannah, Ga. The other is dated "Augusta, 6 May, 1819," and addressed to Capt. Wm. Jones, care of A. Porter, Esq., cashier Bank of Georgia—signed J. C. Given by Mr. James Barrett, of Augusta, Georgia.

A bound "Fair Edition" of The Augusta Chronicle, Sunday, October 28, 1906. From the editor, Mr. Thomas W. Loyless.

The History of The Puritans or Protestant Non-Conformist. Published in Dublin. Printed for W. Williamson, at Mecaenas' Head, in Bude Street. From Dr. B. Hammet Teague, of Aiken, South Carolina.

Two bound volumes of the "London Magazine," for 1744 and 1745. From Rev. William S. Bearr, formerly of Augusta, Georgia, now of Clinton, South Carolina. They were formerly owned by his grandfather, William Smith, of Augusta, Ga.

The visit of Lafayette. The Old Housekeeper's Story. By Lucia Gray Sweet.

Life and Times of Jonathan Bryan, 1788. By Mrs. J. H. Redding, of Waycross, Georgia.

The Lay of Gratitude—consisting of poems occasioned by the recent visit of Lafayette to the United States. By Daniel Bryan.

An account of Dr. Lyman Hall, one of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, published in the American Monthly Magazine, April 1900. By Henry O. Hall, a kinsman. Given by Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, formerly of Augusta, Ga., now of Savannah, Georgia.

George Washington. By Woodrow Wilson. From Mrs. Julia F. C. Moore, of Augusta, Georgia.

List of books and papers given to Meadow Garden by members of the Sergeant Newton Chapter D. A. R., of Covington, Georgia:

Messages and Papers of the President. By James. Richardson. Volume I, 1789-1817. Volume II, 1817-1833. Volume III, 1833-1841.

The Nile Boat, or Glimpses of the Land of Egypt. By W. H. Bartlett, 1851.

The Life of Samuel Johnson. By James Boswell. Volume I.

The True Christian Religion. By Emanuel Swedenborg.

Macauley's Miscellanies.

Lady's Book.

Discovery on the Northern Coasts of America. By James Wilson, 1836.

The Old Curiosity Shop. Hard Times. The Holy Tree. By Charles Dickens.

Martin Chuzzlewit. By Charles Dickens.

Outlines of General History. By Richard Green Parker.

The History of Richard I. Coeur De Lion. By Jacob Abott.

History of Queen Elizabeth. By Jacob Abbott.

History of Mary Queen of Scots. By Jacob Abbott.

Journal of a Young Man of Massachusetts, 1815.

Goethe's Faust. Translated by Anna Swanwick.

Histories of Cyrus The Great, and Alexander The Great. By Jacob Abbott.

Legends of Charlemague. By Thomas Bulfinch.

On Heroes, Hero Worship and the Heroic in History. By Thomas Carlyle.